Pannonica was put together initially - as many great Austrian events happen - as part of the Porgy & Bess Jazzclub. It became Stageband which invited eight female composers and musicians to perform as guests and has now come up with a really interesting album led by bassplayer Gina Schwarz. There are some really interesting compositions in this album and here is one. Plays music from „Pannonica“: „Baharat“ by Gina Schwarz.

Honestly have to say that this track wasn't typical of the music on this album, that sort of eastern feel doesn't permeate it, in fact there is lots of variety. I think I play another track - very different. Plays music from „Pannonica“: „Gm's Musicbox“ by Gina Schwarz

Music with the band Pannonica led by the bassplayer Gina Schwarz. There are some many fine Austrian musicians on the album. Lorenz Raab is playing some really nice trumpet ...etc.

That's Pannonica with a double album - a very nice album with lots of variety - a double album - the first one is called „Musicbox“ the second one „Free Landscape“.

This is an album that I had to listen to two or three times and I see this often the case, the more I listen to it the more it has grown on me. I hope you like it.
